Introduction:

The Train Services was introduced in Nagpur way back in 1867 when portion of Bombay-Bhusaval-Nagpur line was opened for traffic

Nagpur Railway station is one of the oldest and busiest stations. Railways made a beginning in Nagpur in 1867, when a portion of the Bombay-Bhusawal-Nagpur line was opened for traffic. In 1881 it was connected to Kolkata via Nagpur.

The foundation stone of the existing building was laid in 1906. It was officially inaugurated on 15 January 1925 by then Governor Sir Frank Sly. Before 1924, the original railway station was located towards the east of its current site near Shukrawari Lake. The present-day railway station was also put up in the pre-independence days. It has become a major tourist destination.

Nagpur is divisional headquarter of two railway zones, Central Railway and South East Central Railway.

There are 94 stations over Nagpur Division (Commercially opened).

Nagpur station is a junction station, catering to North-South & East-West streams of traffic
